Treasury reference to the Customs Commissioners of the petition of Michael Wicks shewing that his goods and writings are seized into the King's hands under pretence of a debt due to the King from him when Receiver of the [Plantations] Customs; praying that his goods and writings may be restored him "and that little money which was seized with them" until the said debt so alleged to be due be made out against him. Reference Book VII, p. 225.

Same to the Postmasters General of the petition of Thomas Samson praying to be continued as Chief Sorter of Westminster Penny Post Office; having behaved himself faithfully in that office and suffered much by being turned out. Ibid.
