ABSTRACT

Language is very important in our lives as it is the means by which people communicate. Speaking skills are often considered the most important part of an EFL course. In foreign language teaching and learning, ability to speak is the most essential skill since it is the basic for communication. Speaking is one of the productive skills, which is the evidence of a student that how much he or she is competent in a language. Moreover, much of the communication is made through speaking. In short, learning a language remains incomplete if one does not achieve competence in speaking. Speaking can be realized as the most common way to convey the message to others and the ability to communicate effectively is a basic requirement which needs to be taken seriously in English education. (Azadi et al 2015) Speaking is one of four basic skills in learning foreign language besides listening, reading and writing. Normally, learners in an EFL context do not use the language in authentic situations. They possess inability in communicating appropriately and correctly. This leads to learners' lack of self-confidence and avoidance when communicating with native English speakers. (Oradee 2012)

Therefore, this paper will suggest some ways of developing the speaking skill of the university students from a theoretical perspective.
